In case of successful passing of examinations the student gets a certificate from the Preparatory Department and is eligible to become a first-year student of the Medical University.

If the foreign citizen has a good command of Russian, he can enter the 1st year upon a successful entrance interview in Russian, Physics, Biology and Chemistry.

The cost of training in BSMU

The cost of training at the Preparatory Department – 2600 USD (in English – 3100 USD),

All foreign students are provided with comfortable dormitories. Over 500 rooms are allotted for them in two comfortable dormitories. There is also the students’ sports club, information center, students’ theatre and scientific society. In university dormitories foreign students live in rooms for 1 or 2 persons, the cost of living is about 400 USD per year.

Foreign students have a possibility to communicate with each other in their national groups, celebrate their national and religious holidays. Meetings of the University authorities and leaders of the national groups, where they discuss current problems, exchange opinions on various aspects of life of overseas students in the Republic of Belarus, are held on a regular basis.

The international graduate gets a similar diploma as a Belarusian graduate, the only formal difference is an English record and the title of M.D. – Doctor of Medicine awarded to the graduate. The diploma has an Appendix containing the record of grades and hours of studies in the subjects taken during the course of training. These records are checked with the curriculum of the local educational establishments by the so-called medical councils abroad before taking a qualification examination to confirm the received diploma.

Subject: Admission of Pakistani Students in Belarusian Educational Institutions

Minister of State for Education and Professional Training, Engineer Baligh Ur Rehman, during his visit to Belarus on 17-20 May 2016, held a number of meetings with his counterpart, Mr. Mikhail Anatoliyevich Zhuravkov, Minister for Education. During last meeting held on May 19, 2016, both sides agreed on a pilot project proposal whereby Belarus would offer altogether 40 seats (20 seats each in Medicine and Engineering disciplines) in various Universities of Belarus, to start cooperation in the education sphere.

2. Subsequently, this Mission, as a follow-up, held two rounds of talks with the International Cooperation Department of the Ministry of Education of Belarus. As a consequence, the Belarusian Ministry of Education has forwarded a list of professional institutions/universities with number/nature of courses and fee structure for undergraduate and graduate degree courses in medicine and engineering. The offer also includes post-graduate courses to Pakistani students. The offer is transmitted as Annex-A.

3. To proceed further, the Belarusian side has offered following options:

i) Representatives from Belarusian educational institutions may visit Pakistan to select candidates for the proposed project. In this regard a certain procedure can be evolved with mutual procedural conformities.

"Belarusian Education Expo" can be organized on the premises of Pakistani universities by the Ministry of Education of Pakistan. For proper implementation of this idea, mutual collaboration between the Higher Education Commission of Pakistan and the Provincial Education Ministries of the four provinces of Pakistan needs to be ensured.

The Ministry of Education of Pakistan may at its own run an advertisement campaign to make young students aware about admissions in Belarusian universities/colleges.

Reliable and trustworthy recruiting agencies may be taken on board for the initiation of this plan. These recruitment agencies are capable of attracting students for admission in Belarus.

To initiate the admission process for the academic year starting in September 2016. This situation in view, I will be having another meeting with the concerned Department of Ministry of Education on Thursday, 09 June 2016. Meanwhile, you are kindly requested to involve, on parallel, the Embassy of Belarus in Islamabad to thrash-out the admission criteria, screening of the applications, procedure for depositing fee, visa and other details. It may be mentioned that a diplomatic representative of the Embassy of Belarus in Islamabad was also present during the meeting between the two Ministers on 19 May 2016.

With a view to translate the proposal into reality, we will be closely following the subject with the host government in Minsk and request that Ministry of Education may send a standard model of admission procedure, which may provide basis for discussions with the local authorities for evolving a procedure before 9th June 2016.

Respectful regards
